

Hawai'i Police Department

Serving the Island of Hawai'i

Home News Services Recruitment About Us Contact Us Community

Police not investigating "war crimes" 05-09-13

| Published: MAY 9, 2013
Hawai'i Police Department
Office of the Chief
Chief Harry S. Kubojiri

Media Release

A May 7, 2013, "press release" sent by attorney Dexter Kaiama to local media sources claims that certain state judges, attorneys and others are under investigation by the Hawai'i Police Department for alleged war crimes based on their role in foreclosure proceedings.

The Hawai'i Police Department recognizes Mr. Kaiama's First Amendment right to express his beliefs regarding Hawaiian sovereignty; however, the representations as to the Hawai'i Police Department's involvement in the investigation of alleged war crimes are inaccurate. The Police Department is conducting no such investigation.

Print This Post

« Lava hiker identified 05-09-13

Search

Search

Chief

Deputy Chief

Police Chief Harry S. Kubojiri

Other Departments

- Honolulu Police Department
- Maui Police Department